50X1-HUM

1. Regarding the gas bomb supplies which remained in the Soviet Zone of Germany at the end of the war, the last consignment of Trilon gas was sent by rail to Libau, Latvia, in the middle of November 1948, and the gas dump which had existed at Mokrzhenna (E53) was closed down. The officer in charge of transporting this gas was General Jorinov.
2. A Soviet officer who was connected with the dispatch of this gas said at the time that he would be able to spend two days at home. Since his home was in Leningrad, it is assumed that the gas was sent from Libau by sea to a place in, or near, Leningrad.
